Krazy Kat is down on a South Sea Island. He sees a very beautiful girl pass in a Hula-Hula costume. She makes eyes at him and he falls for her. He follows her and sees her go into a hut.

Krazy Kat, after a while, goes over to what he thinks is the hut and starts pounding at the door. Suddenly, what he thinks is the hut, turns into a fat, native maid. She sees the feline and falls for him. He runs away but she pursues.

There is a dance going on before the King. The beautiful girl is performing. The Krazy Kat is called to do something. He does an eccentric dance. The King calls him over and tells him he marry his daughter. Krazy Kat, thinking the beautiful girl is his daughter, consents. The King then beckons to the fat girl. Krazy Kat pleads with the King but the King says either he marries HIS daughter (the fat girl) OR jumps into the lake which is alive with sharks. Krazy Kat then jumps into the lake.
